Provided that the posting shall be made in accordance with the wedlock policy of the Federal or Provincial Government as the case may be, or under this Act if such policy is not available.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Women economic empowerment is key to success of a country. This can be understood from the conditions in which women work especially the facilities provided at workplace to avoid intersecting forms of discrimination. Article 2(f) of United Nations Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women, 1979 (CEDAW) provides that a state party to the convention shall legislate to modify or abolish existing laws, regulations, customs and practices which constitute discrimination against women. In this regard Federal Government, pursuant to entry 32 of the Part I of Federal Legislative list of Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan may legislate upon international treaties and conventions.

This Bill aims at provision of protection of the rights of women at work place in order to have equal access to employment, free from gender discrimination and safeguard against the systemic undervaluing of work traditionally performed by women in the public and private organisations of Pakistan.
