PAKISTAN STOCK EXCHANGE LIMITED

NOTIFICATION

Date, October 21, 2019

In exercise of powers conferred upon Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) under Section 8(3) of the Securities Act, 2015, Pakistan Stock Exchange Limited (PSX), with the prior approval of the SECP, hereby makes the following amendments to PSX Regulations in relation to increasing disciplinary powers of PSX against non-compliant listed companies; allowing sponsors of an issuing company to participate in subscription of privately placed debt securities offered by such issuer; sharing of profit on cash deposits of brokers with PSX against Base Minimum Capital and bringing improvements in certain areas of Chapters 5, 5A and 16 of PSX Regulations. These approved amendments shall take effect from October 9, 2019:

Chapter 5: LISTING OF COMPANIES AND SECURITIES REGULATIONS1. Sub-clause 5.5.10 has been amended to read as under:

5.5. PROSPECTUS, ALLOTMENT, ISSUE AND TRANSFER OF SHARES:

5.5.10. SUBSCRIPTION PROCESS:

- (b) Within ten (10) working days of the close of public subscription period, the company shall allot and issue shares against the accepted and successful applications and the subscription money of the unsuccessful applicants shall be refunded.
- (e) The company shall credit and dispatch all shares certificates, in marketable lots, within ten (10) working days of the closing of subscription list to all the successful applicants under intimation to the Exchange.

Provided that where the security has been declared to be an eligible security, share certificates shall be issued by the company and deposited directly into the CDS in such manner as may be prescribed by the CDC provided the applicant has provided his CDC account on the application form.

2. Clause 5.11 has been amended to read as under:

5.11. DEFAULTERS' SEGMENT, SUSPENSION AND DE-LISTING:

5.11.1. A listed company may be placed in the Defaulters' Segment if:

- (a) It has not commenced its commercial production in the case of a manufacturing company or business operations in the case of any other company within ninety (90) days of the date of commencement of commercial production/ business operations as disclosed in its Prospectus;
- (b) It has suspended commercial production/ business operations in its principle line of business for a continuous period of one year;
- (c) It has failed to hold its one Annual General Meeting as per law;

Upon placement of such company on the Defaulters' Segment, the Exchange shall only initiate actions under Regulation 5.11.2(a) and 5.11.2(b). However, if such company fails to hold its Annual General Meeting for two consecutive years, trading in shares of the company shall be suspended by the exchange and the company shall be given 90 days to rectify the non-compliance failing which, the Exchange shall initiate further actions against the company commencing from Regulation 5.11.2(e).

- (f) It for any reason whatsoever has failed to join CDS after its security has been declared eligible security;

Trading in shares of such company shall be suspended by the exchange upon its placement on the Defaulters' Segment and the company shall be given 90 days to rectify the non-compliance, following which the Exchange shall initiate further actions against the company commencing from Regulation 5.11.2(e).

- (g) Its CDS eligibility has been suspended by the CDC;

Upon placement of such company on the Defaulters' Segment, the Exchange shall only initiate actions under Regulation 5.11.2(a) and 5.11.2(b).

- (h) Its CDS eligibility has been revoked by the CDC;

Trading in shares of such company shall be suspended by the exchange upon its placement on the Defaulters' Segment and the company shall be given 90 days to rectify the non-compliance, following which the Exchange shall initiate further actions against the company commencing from Regulation 5.11.2(e).

- (l) A show cause notice for winding up has been issued to the company by the Commission;

Upon placement of such company on the Defaulters' Segment from the date on which the Exchange receives information from the Commission regarding issuance of show cause notice for winding-up of the company, the Exchange shall initiate actions under Regulation 5.11.2(a) and 5.11.2(b).

Provided that the Exchange upon receiving information that the Commission has passed order for winding-up of the company, shall immediately disseminate such information to the general public.

Provided further that upon receipt of information regarding filing of winding-up petition against the company in Court by the Commission, the Exchange shall provide the company with notice of 14 trading days to rectify its default by obtaining clearance from the Commission. Upon failure of the company to rectify its default within 7 trading days from the date such notice, trading in shares of the company shall be allowed only on T+0 (SPOT) for next 7 days, and upon continued failure of the company to rectify its default, the Exchange shall suspend trading in the shares of the company from the 15th trading day from receipt of information regarding filing of winding-up petition against the company in Court by the Commission. The Exchange shall proceed to delist such company upon appointment of official liquidator by Court, without providing the company with opportunity for compulsory buy-back.

- (m) Winding-up petition is filed by creditor(s) or shareholder(s) in the Court subject to the following conditions:

- (i) such creditor or creditors, either severally or jointly, have a claim against the company which is equivalent to at least ten percent of the equity of the company as per the latest accounts available with the Exchange; or
- (ii) such shareholder or shareholders, either severally or jointly, own at least ten percent of the company's paid-up capital;

Upon placement of such company on the Defaulters' Segment from the date on which the Exchange receives information regarding commencement of its winding-up, the Exchange shall initiate actions under Regulation 5.11.2(a) and 5.11.2(b) and provide the company with notice of 14 trading days for submitting reasons as to why trading in its shares may not be suspended by the Exchange. Upon failure of the company to rectify its default within 7 trading days from the date of such notice, trading in shares of the company shall be allowed only on T+O (SPOT) for the next 7 days, and upon continued failure of the company to rectify its default, the Exchange shall suspend trading in the shares of the Company from the 15th trading day of its placement on the Defaulters' Segment.

The Exchange shall proceed to delist such company upon appointment of official liquidator by Court, without providing the company with opportunity for compulsory buy-back.

- 5.11.3. Any information/ notices issued in relation to actions taken against any company under Regulation 5.11.1 and 5.11.2 or restoration of such company to the normal ready market counter shall be disseminated by the Exchange to the market participants prior to opening of market on the next trading day.

- 5.11.4. No company which has been de-listed under these Regulations, shall be restored and its shares re-quoted until it removes the causes of de-listing and receives the assent of the Board for the restoration.
- 5.11.5. No company shall be de-listed under these Regulations, unless such company has been provided an opportunity of being heard. In case of failure of the company to avail the hearing opportunity, the Exchange shall proceed to delist the company on ex-parte basis.
- 5.11.6. In case of a company having more than one ground for placement on Defaulters' Segment, the Exchange shall follow the steps prescribed for the ground that leads to earlier suspension or delisting of the company, as the case may be.
